

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Chairman and moderator: Tom Cherrett, University of Southampton –Transportation Research Group

WEDNESDAY 13 OCTOBER 2010

09.00 Registration

09.20 Introduction

Tom Cherrett, University of Southampton –Transportation Research Group

09.30 Urban freight distribution: Main needs and views of freight operators and local authorities

Fraser McLeod, University of Southampton –Transportation Research Group

10.00 The European Commission ICT Programme: Towards innovative solutions for city logistics

Wolfgang B. Höfs, European Commission

10.20 An integrated solution for city logistics: Overview of the SMARTFREIGHT project

Hans Westerheim, SMARTFREIGHT Coordinator, SINTEF

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 SMARTFREIGHT in real life: Introduction to the site visit

Ola Martin Lykkja, Q-Free

12.00 Lunch break

13.00 SMARTFREIGHT site visit: Access control and special cargo in a tunnel

Ola Martin Lykkja, Q-Free

15.00 Coffee break

15.30 How does SMARTFREIGHT actually work? The Trondheim case

Tor K. Moseng, SINTEF and Ola Martin Lykkja, Q-Free

17.00 End of day 1

19.30 Conference dinner

THURSDAY 14 OCTOBER 2010

09.20 Introduction to Day 2

Tom Cherrett, University of Southampton –Transportation Research Group

09.25 How to apply SMARTFREIGHT in different contexts and situations? A presentation of possible scenarios

Stig Franzén, Chalmers University

09.45 A case study in Bologna

Stig Franzén, Chalmers University

10.05 A simulation of loading bay booking in Winchester

Fraser McLeod, University of Southampton –Transportation Research Group

10.25 Wider issues: Views from industry on 'Smart' freight concept in Dublin

Eoin Farrell –National Transportation Authority, Dublin

10.45 Key issues and implications

Stig Franzén, Chalmers University

11.00 Coffee break

11.25 Roundtable discussion: SMARTFREIGHT future applications, impacts and possible business models

Hans Westerheim (SINTEF), Wolfgang Höefs (European Commission), Zeljko Jetic (ERTICO), Christian Udin (SWECO), Magnus Jäderberg (City of Gothenburg)

12.00 End of the conference and & lunch